THE COMPANIES ACT,
(CAP. 212)

REGULATIONS

(Made under section 455A)

THE COMPANIES (RETENTION AND DISPOSAL OF COMPANY DOCUMENTS) REGULATIONS, 2023

- Citation 1. These Regulations may be cited as the Companies (Retention and Disposal of Company Documents) Regulations, 2023.
- Application 2. These Regulations shall apply to companies incorporated or registered under the Act.
- Interpretation 3. In these Regulations, unless the context otherwise requires-
- Cap. 212 “Act” means the Companies Act;
- Cap. 442 “document” has the meaning ascribed to it under the Act;
“electronic record” has the meaning ascribed to it under the Electronic Transactions Act; and “retention period” means the period prescribed for a company to keep and maintain its documents under these Regulations.
- Requirement to retain company documents 4.-(1) A company shall ensure maintenance and availability of all original documents required to be kept under the Act or any other written law.
(2) Company documents shall be retained in paper form or electronic record.
- Period of retention 5.-(1) Unless otherwise provided under any other written law, a company shall retain documents for the period specified in the First Schedule to these Regulations.
(2) Without prejudice to sub regulation (1), a company may adopt a policy for retention of documents prescribing a different retention period which shall not be less than the period prescribed in these Regulations.

(3) The Registrar may, by giving reasons in a written notification, direct any company to retain any documents beyond the period prescribed in these Regulations.

(4) The period of retention prescribed under these Regulations shall begin to run from the date the document is no longer in use.

Disposal of documents

6.-(1) The Company may, on its own, dispose its documents upon expiration of retention period prescribed under these Regulations.

(2) Disposal of company documents shall be done under the authority of the Board of Directors, administrator, administrative receiver, receiver or liquidator of the company.

(3) The company secretary, director, administrator, administrative receiver, receiver or a liquidator of the company shall enter the particulars of all documents to be disposed in the disposal form prescribed in the Second Schedule to these Regulations, and shall be present at the disposal of the documents to be disposed.

(4) After completion of disposal of documents, the company secretary, director, administrator, administrative receiver, receiver or liquidator of the company present during disposal shall sign the disposal form.

(5) The company shall deliver the disposal form to the Registrar within twenty-eight days from the date of the disposal.

(6) In the event of non-compliance of sub regulation (5), the company and every officer of the company who is in default shall be liable to a default fine.

Documents required in investigation and legal proceedings

7.-(1) Notwithstanding the prescribed retention period, documents which may be required for any investigation or pending legal proceedings or claims shall not be disposed until the completion of legal proceedings or claims or investigation as the case may be.

(2) Where it has been determined that a document is required in any proceedings or claim or investigation and such document is disposed, it shall be deemed that such document has been deliberately disposed.

(3) In the event of non-compliance of this regulation, the company and every officer of the company who is in default shall be liable to a default fine.

Penalty for contravention

8. The company and every officer of the company who contravenes any provision of these Regulations commits an offence and shall upon conviction be liable to a fine of not less than one million shillings but not exceeding ten million shillings.
