

THE FAIR COMPETITION ACT,
(CAP.285)

RULES

(Made under section 90)

THE FAIR COMPETITION TRIBUNAL (AMENDMENT) RULES, 2026

Citation
GN. No.
219 of 2012

1. These Rules may be cited as the Fair Competition Tribunal (Amendment) Rules, 2026 and shall be read as one with the Fair Competition Tribunal Rules, 2012 hereinafter referred to as “the principal Rules”.

Amendment
of rule 2

2. The principal Rules are amended in rule 2-
(a) by deleting the definition of the term “party”
and substituting for it the following;

““party” in relation to an appeal or application, means an appellant, intervenor, applicant or respondent;”;

(b) by deleting the definition of the term “regulatory body” and substituting for it the following:

““regulatory body” means any regulatory body the decision of which is appealable to the Tribunal;”;

(c) by adding in their appropriate alphabetical
order, the following new definitions:

““authorised officer” means a person authorised by a party through power of attorney;

“intervenor” means a person who has sufficient interest in the outcome of the proceedings and who has been granted leave to join in the proceedings as an interested party;”.
